DESCRIBE THE PRESENT AND ORIGINAL (IF KNOWN) PHYSICAL APPEARANCE

There are two old family cemeteries here, on this rolling cleared land along the Potomac River front. The oldest appears to be a series of above-ground, brick burial vaults next to the road. These are capped with flat marble tops. The other cemetery is on the same property, some yards SW of here.

STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANCE

Deserves further investigation. May be one of the oldest and best-preserved family burial plots in this historic area. There once were a series of River landings here, and the Edelin family owned land near here in the 1800's.
